BBBB.

You don't need to Answer Every Question.

Not a place to convince everyone.

Not a place to chase rabbits.

What "Goliath" are you up against right now?

How has expecting the best encouraged you to approach the giant in a different way?

David developed a daily spiritual routine by tuning in to God,
thinking on His promises, trusting God's love, and talking with other believers.

Which of these is easiest for you?

Which is more difficult? Why is that?

When you expect the best in faith:

it honors God, increases your ability, and encourages others.

Share an experience where you expected the BEST from God and how your attitude encouraged another person.

What is the difference between biblical faith and positive thinking?

How can expecting the best influence your attitude throughout the day?

"Your Attitude influences your altitude."
